

Tata Vasco (Spanish Edition)

Ernesto Cardenal, humanista, teólogo y poeta, es uno de los grandes traductores del pensamiento del México antiguo, tal como lo dejó plasmado en su poemario Quetzalcoatl. Desde esta humanidad, Cardenal nos presenta ahora un Vasco de Quiroga, sólido y directo, que nos inunda con un sentimiento de empatía hacia el indígena actual. Cardenal entrega en este libro un solo poema-homenaje a Vasco de Quiroga quien, en pleno siglo XVI, realizara en Michoacán la única verdadera utopía. Ni Platón, ni Bacon ni Moro lograron cristalizar sus ideas de la forma en que lo hiciera Tata Vasco en México. Sus «escuelas hospitalares» aún guardan las enseñanzas de este sabio como una reflexión sobre la dignidad de todo ser humano. Su legado se mantiene vivo y se practica en la creación de una artesanía rica en color e imaginación.

Aquí la muestra del sabio Tata Vasco traído a actualidad por Cardenal con empatía y reconocimiento a la espiritualidad mexicana. Ambos humanistas son a su manera educadores del corazón, haciendo que cada ser humano tenga un rostro propio y un corazón firme como la piedra. Tata Vasco se nos desvela, en la voz de Cardenal, desbordando una poética sensible, alta, sublime.
